TELEPHONE TIPS

TOWARD GOOD PUBLIC RELATIONS

THE PUBLIC IMPRESSIONS OF A UNIVERSITY and of you personally are made up of countless little things. But few things are more important than your telephone personality.

WARMTH, TACT AND COURTESY pay high dividends in appreciation, and in listener response when you handle a business call on the telephone.

TO AID THE UNIVERSITY'S PUBLIC RELATIONS, as well as your own, here are a few reminders:

- Answer promptly.

- Identify your office, and then yourself . . . e.g.:
  "Good morning, Admissions Office, Miss Baker."

- Keep a smile in your voice.

- Accept calls courteously.
  "May I ask who is calling, please?"
  Offer to take a message.

- When absent, have your telephone covered.
  Arrange for someone to take the calls.
  Leave word when you expect to return.
  (or where you can be reached)

- Explain delays to the caller.

- Hang up gently.
  Allow caller to hang up first.

Ever meet a Doubting Thomas?

A college senior once remarked to a Chesapeake & Potomac interviewer: "A telephone career must be a mirage. I hear talk about fabulous training, fascinating work, grade-A job security, and rapid advancement in management. Sounds a bit too rosy. What's the real story?"

The interviewer knew mere talk wouldn't sell a skeptic. So he showed him some "profiles" of recent college graduates who had enjoyed that fabulous training, had worked at intriguing jobs, and had won early management promotions.

Our once-skeptical friend has been with C & P several years now—and is currently supervising the operations of one of our major test centers.

We've converted a host of Doubting Thomases. Whether doubtful or not, perhaps it would pay you to ask your Placement Officer about current openings at Chesapeake & Potomac.
